

SuperKeys Limited Lifetime Warranty

SuperSprings International Inc. warrants that SuperKeys products will be free of defects in materials as well as workmanship for a period of the lifetime of the vehicle for which the SuperKeys were originally purchased, from date of installation. SuperSprings International Inc will replace, to the original purchaser, free of charge, any part of this product found to be defective under normal use. To the extent permitted by law SuperSprings International will not be held liable for any incidental or consequential damages, including the cost of installation or reinstallation.

While this warranty gives you specific legal rights, you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.
